Emergency Evacuation

GRCI's central Fire Warden is our Administrative Assistant – please follow their directions in the case of Emergency Evacuation. Should they be absent from the office at the time of the emergency please follow the procedure outlined below.

Emergency Evacuation Procedure

In the case of an emergency when evacuation is required all employees must follow the specified evacuation procedures. Please use the closest fire exits in the case of an emergency. Do not use the lifts. It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure that their co-workers are following procedure and exiting the area as quickly and safely as possible. Employees must not stay in the building to collect other Company property. It is important they exit as quickly and safely as possible. All staff must adhere to any directions given by any emergency services crews, should they be in attendance in an emergency.

Stage 1. Vacate

All employees must quickly and calmly make their way to the Fire exits.

Stage 2. Assemble

All employees are to go immediately to the meeting point – Park opposite 201 Kent Street.

PLEASE NOTE: In the case of a Bomb Threat a new location may be advised by Building Management

Employees are not to leave this area unless all have assembled and agreed. Everyone should speak to someone in their business unit or near desk location to confirm their safety, and then in turn notify their Business Unit Manager to confirm the 'team's safety'. If anyone has been conducting an on-site meeting it their responsibility to ensure their visitors evacuate in the agreed manner and that they are present at the meeting point.

Stage 3. Assess and Act on the Situation

It is important that everyone patiently waits for the emergency services to arrive and complete their job, rather than trying to address the issue him or herself.

First Aid Officers will commence providing essential first aid to any injured employee(s) while waiting at the assembly area.

It is important that throughout any emergency procedure all employees:

- Remain calm
- Do not put others at unnecessary risk
- Obey instructions from emergency services, OH&S Representatives, and in hostage situations - offenders
- Employees provide all information they have on the incident to the National Manager and/or MD and Emergency Service representatives

After any serious emergency experienced by GRCI staff, debriefing and counselling will be made available by the organisation, to ensure that all employees are comfortable upon their return to work.

First Aid

GRCI does not currently have assigned First Aid Officers.

The First Aid Kit that is located in the kitchen/amenities area of the office. Should you require medical attention please notify your manager or the National Manager in lieu of assigned First Aid Officers.

Legislation and Policies

SRTO (2015) (revised 2017)

Standard 8.5 The RTO complies with Commonwealth, State and Territory legislation regulatory requirements relevant to its operations.

Standard 8.6. The RTO ensures its staff and clients are informed of any changes to legislative and regulatory requirements that affect the services delivered.

Relevant obligations –to be complied with by all staff and students:

SRTO (2015) (revised 2017) and ASQA

The Standards of the National Vocational Education & Training (VET) Regulator (NVR) for Registered Training Organisation (RTO) or SNR have been replaced by the SRTO (2015 and revised 2017) which are national set of standards to assure nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment services for the clients of Australia's vocational education and training (VET) system..

<https://www.asqa.gov.au/about/australias-vet-sector/standards-registered-training-organisations-rtos-2015>

<https://www.asqa.gov.au/standards>

The Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 form part of the VET Quality Framework, a system which ensures the integrity of nationally recognised qualifications. SRTO set out the requirements that an organisation must meet in order to be an RTO; ensure that training products delivered by RTOs meet the requirements of GRCI's VET accredited courses, and have integrity for employment and further study; and ensure RTOs operate ethically with due consideration of learners' and enterprises' needs.

Training staff need to be aware of the training and assessment conditions and standards in the SRTO. You can find out more information from various websites.

The SRTO require trainers to have as a minimum a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, (usually referred to as TAE) otherwise that trainer must work under the direct supervision of someone who does. Consistent with this standard, GRCI requires that all training and assessor staff obtain the Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (Schedule 1 SRTO 2015) within 2 years of beginning work with GRCI. The Certificate IV course includes detailed information about the SRTO.

GRCI must meet the SRTO 2015 in order to deliver and assess nationally recognised training and issue nationally recognised qualifications.

The SRTO have a strong focus on the student experience from marketing information through to issuing certificates, as well as a requirement for Registered Training Organisations (RTO) to gather information on their performance, including: Quality Indicator annual summary, Course and competency completion, Annual Declaration of compliance.

The Quality Indicators have been designed to help RTOs conduct evidence-based and outcomes-focused continuous quality improvement, and assist a registering body to assess the risk of an RTO's operations. Under the SRTO, RTOs are required to collect and use data on key Quality Indicators which was originally endorsed by National Skills Standards Council (NSSC) and now under the COAG Industry and Skills Council: Learner Engagement, Employer Satisfaction and Competency Completion.

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) is the national regulator for Australia's vocational education and training sector. ASQA regulates courses and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met. For more information, their website is <http://www.asqa.gov.au>

All organisations must comply with this Act, regardless of the types of services and/or products they provide or sell. For more information visit:

Australian Consumer Law (ACL) 2011

Australian Consumer Law (ACL) 2011 aims to provide an equitable, competitive, informed and safe market place. It makes provisions in respect to certain unfair or undesirable trade practices, and aims at regulating the supply of goods and services.

ACL is enforced by the Australian Consumer and Competition Commission (ACCC) and State regulators. It empowers the ACCC to deal with contraventions, allowing for fines and also ensuring consumers are provided with minimum guarantees and warranties. Compliance with the ACL is a legal requirement and any contraventions or complaints escalated by consumers are likely to be investigated by the regulator

Relevant aspects of ACL are:

- Dealing with consumer transactions for goods or services;
Fees: Students are informed upfront of the total cost of courses, it is crucial that the single total fee is always displayed in a prominent way within the same collateral.
- On the making and enforcement of information standards;
Marketing conduct and claims: ensuring that materials and advice to students is accurate and not misleading when promoting courses and benefits. GRCI also ensures that logos and titles are used in accordance with directions from ASQA and AQF

The Learner Questionnaire and the GRCI course completion survey focus on the extent to which students are engaging in activities likely to promote high-quality skill outcomes, as well as students' perceptions of the quality of their competency development and the support they receive from GRCI.

Competency and Course Completion (SRTO 2015: Standard 8.1)

Recruitment and Training (SRTO 2015: Standard 8.5 and 8.6)

Offshore Delivery and Quality Assurance (SRTO 2015: Standard 2)

The Institute applied for AusLIST registration in early 2014 and as the application was in process AEI-International Education Network decommissioned and deregulated the venture as of 1 July 2014. This means the Institute will continue to offer partial off shore delivery under the Transnational

Quality Strategy (TQS) and the Institute will abide by the four principles for off shore delivery. The Transnational Quality Strategy (TQS) establishes a quality assurance framework for offshore delivery of Australian transnational education and training. Offshore students will be awarded the same qualifications at the same standard as domestic students “four principles:

1. Ensure that Australia's quality assurance framework is well understood and well regarded within Australia and internationally;
2. Make clear to providers and consumers the accountabilities in offshore education and training;
3. Ensure that accreditation and audit functions are undertaken transparently; and
4. Ensure equivalence between courses/programs offered within Australia and offshore”

The institute ensures that the delivery and assessment is the same as onshore as the same trainers will deliver the initial 2 or 4 days face to face start to the courses and work will be assessed by those trainers. The course is then completed by distant learning as with domestic or onshore. The workplace assessment and case studies will be assessed by assessors in Australia. All venues used off shore are of the same standard or better than those used in Australia.

Assessment Policy and Procedure (SRT0 2015: Standard 1.8)

Generally the format of the assessment will be in the form of classroom presentations, demonstrations, group interaction, written tests, assignments, case studies and workplace projects related etc as outlined in the delivery methodologies, related to the performance criteria, knowledge evidence and performance evidence.

All assessments will be conducted by a highly experienced trainers and assessors and, where applicable, supervised by qualified trainer/assessors. The assessor will record either 'satisfactory' or 'not yet satisfactory' for each assessment and provide feedback especially where the work needs to be resubmitted. All assessments will be returned to students within 10 working days of receipt by the assessor/supervisor. Where a student receives 'satisfactory' for all assessments they will be deemed 'competent' and will receive the qualification (testamur/certificate and record of results) within 30 days of being judged 'competent'. Where a student does not achieve 'satisfactory' for all assessments they will be asked to resubmit. One resubmission is allowed for each assessment at no extra cost. Subsequent submissions will cost $250 to cover the expense of paying an assessor/supervisor to assess the work. If still not satisfactory they will receive a statement of attainment for any successfully achieved competencies. Where a student is dissatisfied with an assessment made, they may lodge an appeal or a complaint -refer to complaints and appeals section.

Assessments have been developed in line with the Principles of Assessment

Fairness:

- The individual student's needs are considered in the assessment process. Reasonable adjustments are made to suit the work place requirements of individual students. Relevant ISO and AN/NZ standards can be applied to the student's environment to ensure that the work place assessment is fair for all. Further, the appeals process affords the student the opportunity to have their work reassessed.

Flexibility Assessment is flexible to the individual learner by:

- Meeting the workplace needs of learner's;

- Learner competence is assessed regardless of how it was acquired; and a range of assessment methods, including presentation, demonstration, case study simulation, workplace etc, are drawn upon to match various learning styles.

Validity Assessments are based on:

- holistic groupings of units of competency covering the required of performance skills and knowledge;
- integrating knowledge and performance skills practically in the workplace and simulated case studies;
- the learner demonstrating these skills and knowledge in a variety of situations (as determined by the unit requirements; and
- evidence of learner performance aligned with holistically grouped units of competency and associated assessment requirements.

Reliability:

- Learner's work is assessed consistently based on required outcomes and authorised by the supervisor where required.

Assessments are assessed in line with the Rules of Evidence

Validity:

- The learner must demonstrate (evidence) that they have the skills and knowledge in the holistically grouped units of competency.

Sufficiency:

- The learner's evidence meets required quality (satisfactory or not yet satisfactory), quantity (repetition of skills and knowledge and quantity of work) and relevance to the work place.

Authenticity:

- The evidence presented is the learner's own work. In face to face delivery the authenticity is verified by trainer observation and use of observation checklists where appropriate.

Currency:

- The evidence demonstrates present competency with ISO or industry standards.

Assessment Procedure

All assessment activities are to be handed in by the student by the due date to the facilitator/assessor or the GRCI office. Extensions to the due date of an assessment may be granted under exceptional circumstances. All requests for extension must be made in writing NO LATER than 10 working days before the due date of the assessment. Extensions of up to 10 working days may be granted by the RTO Manager however any extensions beyond this must be referred to the Accreditation and Education Committee for their consideration and ruling. All applications for extension must be accompanied by supporting evidence.

Student assessments, both hardcopy, as completed and handed in during face to face training, and electronic files, submitted via email, be maintained by GRCI for a minimum of 2 years (nb: minimum RTO requirements are 6 months retention. Electronic copies of results will be kept for 30 years.

Students will be issued a manual with modules, instructions and a set of assessment tools that include the marking criteria. An electronic copy of the pre-course assessments will be emailed to all course attendees 5 business days before the face to face sessions commence. All students will be given up to 12 months for the Certificate IV course and for the Graduate Certificate course to complete and submit the assessments to education@theGRCInstitute.org. All part time/distance learners will have up to 24 months.

- An email will be sent to students 1 week prior to assessments due date as reminder of submission deadline. Refer to email templates:

All student records will be kept electronically indefinitely or a minimum of 30 years. All assessments will be retained for the minimum 6 months as required after completion of the final assessment for the course.

Sample validation student assessment outcomes that were selected for validation will be retained for the 5 years cycle of registration of the course

Academic Integrity Policy (SRTO 2015: Standard 1)

Cheating, plagiarism, and falsification of data are dishonest practices which contravene GRCI's code of ethics. GRCI is committed to honest behaviour and ethical education. However, collaboration during assessments and in the workplace assessments is encouraged PROVIDED the student's final submission is in their own words.

The purpose of this policy is to define the actions and behaviours that contravene GRCI's standards on ethical education and sets out the responsibilities of staff in providing guidance and feedback to students on academic integrity. Procedures are provided for staff to manage breaches of policy by students and rules on academic conduct.

Forms of academic dishonesty

GRCI regards academic dishonesty as a serious offence and a penalty will be imposed on anyone found guilty of such conduct. The two main forms of academic dishonesty are plagiarism in assignments and misconduct in examinations:

1. Plagiarism means claiming and using the thoughts or writings or creative works of others without appropriate acknowledgment or attribution. Plagiarism includes:

- a) copying part or all of another student's assignment;
- b) allowing another person to write some or all of an assignment;
- c) copying paragraphs, sentences or parts of sentences directly from texts or the internet without enclosing them in quotation marks or otherwise showing them to be copied - even if the source is acknowledged;
- d) using concepts or developed ideas, even if paraphrased or summarised, from another person's published work, from texts or the internet without acknowledging the source; this does not include collaboration provided the end result is the student's own work
- e) copying graphics, multimedia works or other forms of intellectual property without appropriate acknowledgment.

2. Misconduct in an examination (if GRCI introduces formal examinations) includes the following forms of dishonesty:

- a) using a substitute, or acting as a substitute to undertake an examination;
- b) using unauthorised materials or prohibited electronic devices, such as mobile phones, in an examination;
- c) not complying with the GRCI's instructions for students during an examination.

GRCI recognises that some acts of plagiarism may arise from genuine ignorance or lack of skill in using academic conventions for referencing. This is considered unintentional plagiarism.

For guidance on using Harvard referencing, please visit:

http://wwwdocs.fce.unsw.edu.au/fce/EDU/harvard\_ref\_guide.pdf

[Staff should take into account that many students, including some from other cultures, will not be familiar with the conventions for referencing which are expected in Australian Registered Training Organisations.]

Consequences of Academic Misconduct

Should the assessor find evidence suggesting plagiarism, the matter will be referred to the RTO Manager who will draft a formal report of the evidence. The RTO Manager may discuss the matter with the student directly. The report will be brought to the attention of the Accreditation and Education Committee who will make a judgement on the basis of the evidence made available to them as to whether plagiarism has occurred and whether the plagiarism is considered unintentional or intentional.

The Accreditation and Education Committee will determine whether the case should be brought before the Ethics Committee.

After reviewing the evidence, the RTO Manager or Managing Director may take the following courses of action:

1. In most cases the student's submission will be judged as Not Yet Satisfactory, with an option to resubmit the assessment at a date specified.
2. In serious cases the student's submission may be judged as Not Competent, with no eligibility to resubmit the assessment. The student must re-enrol in the subject/unit.
3. In extenuating circumstances, a student may be prohibited from re-enrolling in the course.

Please Note: GRCI reserves the right to disallow a student from study should the student be deemed non-compliant with GRCI's policies or Code of Ethics.

Dealing with misconduct in an examination

The Course Facilitator is authorised to take action to prevent misconduct in scheduled examinations. The responsibility includes determining the immediate action to be taken when an alleged misconduct is discovered. Where necessary, the Course Facilitator will send a report about an alleged breach to the RTO Manager. Where possible, the RTO Manager will discuss an alleged case of misconduct informally with the student. If the RTO Manager confirms that academic misconduct may have occurred, the matter will be referred to the Ethics Committee for decision.

Assessments and Appeals (SRT0 2015: Standard 6)

Assessment extensions

Extensions will only be granted in exceptional circumstances relating to medical and family emergencies, or extreme changes to work commitments e.g. Enforceable Undertakings or audits. Pre-existing work commitments or heavy workloads will not be considered a valid reason for extension. Any extension request must be made in writing at least 10 working days prior to the due date of the assignment. This request must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate and/or other supporting documentation.

Extensions of up to 10 working days may be granted at the discretion of the RTO Manager however any longer extensions must be referred to the Managing Director for their consideration and ruling.

GRCI recognises that in extreme health or other extenuating personal circumstances that two weeks may not be sufficient. In the rare event that more than two weeks is required, the application will be forwarded to the Managing Director for acceptance or rejection. Applicants will be notified in writing of the outcome of their request for extension. An Appeals process is available should applicants be dissatisfied with the outcome with their request for extension.

Appeals policy –refer to Complaints and Appeals

Assessment outcomes

The Assessor will evaluate the assessments. Assessments will be assessed under competency-based criteria as either Satisfactory or Not Yet Satisfactory.

The Assessor will return the assessment results electronically via email and will provide GRCI with 2 document types:

- Word document that details observations specific to the individual student's assessment
- Summative Assessment Cover Sheet (1 for each student)
- Submission dates and assessment result will be recorded under the education section within the student's profile –maintained in the Student database (RTO Manager)
- The student's individual Assessment Cover Sheet forms will be saved into corresponding student's electronic file under the student number
- Students are emailed an assignment receipt confirmation upon submission
- Students will be notified of their individual assessment results via email
- The email will include a copy of their individual Assessment Cover Sheet form as completed by the Assessor
- Template letters for Satisfactory and Not Yet Satisfactory results are available at X:\1. Education\1. Registered Training Organisation (RTO)\8. Email templates.
- Not Yet Satisfactory email invites the student to amend and resubmit their assessment for reassessment based on the assessor's feedback
- The date that students are notified of the results of their assessment results will be recorded in the Education section of a student's profile.

Procedure for Assessments deemed NOT YET SATISFACTORY

- Students with a Not Yet Satisfactory result are invited to amend and resubmit their assignment for reassessment. They are offered one opportunity to resubmit
- GRCI requires students ONLY need amend the assessment components that were not previously deemed by the assessor as Satisfactory
- Students are granted 10 working days to resubmit after the date that they are notified of their results. The due date for the resubmission is recorded in the student profile.
- Resubmitted assessments received via email to the GRCI education email address education@theGRCInstitute.org
- Students are emailed a confirmation receipt confirming GRCI has received resubmitted assessment (and related email attachments)
- "Participant Assessment Tracking" updated with date resubmitted assessment received at GRCI
- Resubmitted assessment and related email attachments (i.e. coversheets and appendix) transferred into individual's named and numbered electronic folder (i.e. John Smith 123568) saved on X Drive.
- Assessments renamed and saved in individual's electronic folder under document type with student number ONLY and reference to resubmission (i.e. Associate Intensive assessment 123568 resubmission, Associate Intensive appendix 123568 resubmission, Associate Intensive coversheet 123568 resubmission)
- Resubmitted assessments (and related appendixes) forwarded electronically via email to Assessor. Resubmitted assessments referenced under student number ONLY and indicate RESUBMISSION (name of student and assessment coversheets are NOT forwarded to assessor)
- Assessor's name recorded on the "Participant Assessment Tracking" spreadsheet

Moderation of Assessment (SRTO 2015: Standard 1)

GRCI will conduct moderation of assessments (both tools and submission) as part of the on-going validation of assessments (refer to the Systematic Validation Schedule) which will involve assessors, including independent external expert assessors, discussing and reaching agreement about assessment processes and outcomes. It will enable the assessors to develop a shared understanding of the requirements of each accredited course, including the relevant competency standards and assessment guidelines, the nature of evidence, how evidence is collected and the basis on which assessment decisions are made. GRCI will record all details of the activities.

Evaluation

GRCI will conduct evaluations to provide information about the efficiency, effectiveness and usefulness of the training program. More specifically, the evaluation will be conducted to determine:

- changes (if any) in student's behaviour,
- knowledge increase, skills improvement and attitude changes,
- other results (such as reduction in staff turnover, increased production, reduced costs, improvement in quality), and
- ways to improve future programs.

Evaluation will be conducted as follows:

WHEN	DESCRIPTION	RESPONDENT
End of course	What were the responses to the training program? ASQA Student Questionnaire GRCI Student feedback	Students

Continual	End of course comments (oral or email) Meetings recommending updates on materials	Facilitator (trainer) Assessor
Systematic Validation Schedule	Refer to schedule for on-going validation tasks	Validation team

Evaluation will be conducted via:

- GRCI Learner survey (see Annex L for sample)
- Learner questionnaire forms
- Employer questionnaire forms
- Systematic Validation including representatives in the validation teams/groups
- interviews, focus groups, surveys/questionnaires and/or other data from consultation with students, employees, enterprise clients and industry organisations
- staff/planning meetings and agreed actions
- complaints and appeals and their resolution – refer to complaints and appeals section
- internal audit reports and organisational self assessment
- staff performance-appraisal reports.

The evaluations will gather feedback about the:

- quality of the course content, format, structure facilities and delivery methods.
- Meet requirements of the units (performance criteria, knowledge and performance)
- quality, currency, relevance and sufficiency of training and assessment resources, including reasonable adjustments made to meet the needs of students with a disability
- professional development activities and outcomes
- validity, reliability, flexibility and fairness of assessment processes.

GRCI will use feedback from the systematic validation to update course materials (tools) assessment instructions (instruments) and training methodologies.

GRCI will summarise the questionnaires, analyse and review qualitative and/or quantitative data to determine the need for improvements to training and assessment and produce an evaluation report. The report will include recommendations for changes to the course to ensure that it better meets the needs of the students. The report will be reviewed by the GRCI Director and trainers/assessors on a 6 monthly basis to determine when and if to implement the recommendations. See Annex L for a sample.

GRCI will also note any informal feedback the organisation may receive such as telephone calls, letters etc, about its training and assessment. These will also be reviewed and included in the respective evaluation report.

GRCI will maintain a record of all changes made to its training and assessment.

Training Record Management Policy (SRTO 2015 Standard 4)

GRCI will maintain the following training records:

- Course records,

- Course materials,
- Student results,
- All Summative Assessment Cover Sheets,
- A sample of completed assessment items,
- Summative Assessment instruments, and
- Details of qualifications/Statements of Attainment issued.

An electronic file will be created for each course. Any documentation relating to a course will be placed in the course file including nominations, refunds, general correspondence, completed evaluation questionnaires, etc.

Student identification will be verified on or before the commencement of the course through the provision of photo identification. The date and type of identification sighted will be recorded in the student's record in the database.

All course materials will include version control details. GRCI will ensure that all facilitators/assessors have a current copy of the course materials prior to the delivery of a course.

GRCI will maintain a record of the final assessment outcome for each unit of competency. The record will include the number and title of the unit of competency, the final summary (including a notation of competent/not yet competent) plus the date achieved and will be kept electronically and/or hard copy.

GRCI will maintain a copy of all completed assessment items for all students until after the appeal period (minimum of 5 working days). This will consist of sufficient evidence as to how the assessment was made so as to be able to justify the decision if there is an appeal. It will consist of the actual piece of work completed by the student (if practical) and the Summative Assessment Cover Sheet for the student. The Summative Assessment Cover Sheet will include a summary of feedback given to the student, the name of the assessor and the date of the assessment. After the appeal period only the Summative Assessment Cover Sheet for each student will be retained.

GRCI will maintain a copy of all assessment instruments. Such instruments may address one competency or a cluster of competencies as applicable for holistic assessment. They clearly demonstrate what has been assessed, how this occurred and the linkage to the set standards in the training product (units/accredited course). They will be supported by objective criteria on which the assessor based the assessment decision, such as model answers or listing the key points.

All original assessment records will be grouped by course and stored in a locked filing cabinet in the GRCI offices.

GRCI will maintain a record of Qualifications and/or Statements of Attainment issued to students electronically and/or in hard copy. The record will meet the requirements of the AQF Implementation Handbook and the endorsed units and/or accredited courses within the scope of GRCI's registration. GRCI will maintain enough information to reproduce the qualifications/Statements of Attainment, including the date of issue, if required. A list of units of competency achieved by each individual student will also be retained. For qualifications completed after 1 January 2015 GRCI student VET transcripts will be available using the Student Identifier and access the national database.

A disk copy of the following will be stored on the GRCI network and a monthly back up copy will be held by the Administration Manager in an alternative location:

- Student results,
- Assessment instruments, and
- Qualifications/Statements of Attainment issued.

All records will be maintained in a secure place and confidential information must be safeguarded. Access to the records will be restricted.

Information about individual students will not be disclosed to a third party without the written consent of the student.

Where a student wishes to gain access to their personal records, they are required to put the request in writing to the Managing Director of GRCI. The latter will then arrange an appointment when the student can visit the premises of GRCI and view their records. Such access will be supervised by authorised GRCI staff.

GRCI will retain records to demonstrate SRTO Compliance on audit as follows:

ITEM	FORMAT	PERIOD TO BE RETAINED (MIN)	NUMBER
Student results	Electronic	30 years (SRTO schedule 5)	100%

It is planned that all assessment tools/products will be validated and updated between 2015 and 2020 in preparation for re-accreditation of courses in October 2020	All tools/ instruments used (all assessment products)
Qualifications/ Statements of Attainment Issued	Electronic	30 years (SRTO schedule 5)	100%

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) (SRT0 2015: Standard 1.8 and 1.12)

Refer to ANNEX N: Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the acknowledgement of an individual's skills and knowledge, irrespective of how it has been acquired

GRCI has developed a system that is offered to all students to ensure there is no unnecessary duplication of training or assessment and to ensure maximum recognition of current skills and knowledge. This is detailed in the recognition of prior learning section. Student skills and knowledge are mapped against the requirements of the competencies.

For qualifications completed after 1 January 2015 GRCI will be able to access VET transcripts for the student using their individual Student Identifier and access the national database.

Trainers/Assessors are required to advise students of RPL and how they may apply. RPL is the process of formal recognition for skills and knowledge gained through previous experiences such as:

- Life experiences
- Previous formal learning
- Employment
- Recreational or personal interests

Students may be eligible for recognition of prior learning for part or all of their intended study, based on previous experiences and learning. For all RPL applications evidence must be gathered and RPL application completed.

The trainer/assessor's role in this process is to instruct and guide in the evidence gathering and documentation process. This means a student applying for RPL must satisfy the requirements of the competency/competencies in the course. RPL is an individual process of mapping prior learning to the performance criteria, knowledge and skills and evidence requirements of the course. The Managing Director, the RTO manager, and assessors may be involved in making decisions based on the evidence and documentation provided by the student. Refer to the RPL kits for each of the courses for full details.

Recognition of Qualifications issued by other RTOs / Credit transfer (SRT0 2015: Standard 3)

GRCI will recognise AQF qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by all other RTOs. Students may be eligible for a credit transfer for training previously undertaken through another Registered Training Organisation. Credit transfers may be granted for one or more units or a full certificate. Three major factors need to be considered including how recently the qualification was issued, mapping to the accredited course and if the training was undertaken with a Registered Training Organisation.

A student applying for direct credit transfer is required to submit the original (or certified true copy) of the Testamur with an original Record of Results (listing competencies) or a Statement of Attainment (listing competencies) and any other relevant information to GRCI. Copies of the originals will be kept in the student file.

Trainers/assessors are required to advise students on the availability of this option and assist them in gathering required documentation. The final decision regarding Credit Transfers will be made based on the documentation provided to the RTO Manager.

The RTO Manager will review the documents and may confirm their authenticity by contacting the relevant RTO. The RTO Manager will grant direct credit transfer if appropriate.

The RTO Manager is required to document that credit has been given to a student on the basis of documents issued by other RTOs and note this on the relevant student's records. A copy of the assessor's document plus the copies of documents are to be placed on the relevant course and student files.

AQF qualifications and Statements of Attainment unable to be verified will not be recognised and the student asked to provide further verifiable evidence if possible. Non-verified claims for credit transfer are to be recorded on the individual student's file, together with details of any requests for further information and/or suggestions undertaken.

For qualifications completed after 1 January 2015 GRCI will be able to access VET transcripts for the student using their individual Student Identifier and access the national database.

Results

All students are to receive their assessment feedback and result within 14 days of submission. On completion of the course requirements GRCI will issue either the Testamur and Record of results or a Statement of Attainment within 21 days (i.e. prior to the 30 day requirement in the standards).

Deferral, Suspend, Cancel or Transfer enrolment Policy & Procedure

SRT0: Standard 5 Each learner is properly informed and protected

SRT0 Standard 1.7 The RTO determines the support needs of individual learners...

Purpose

The Institute permits students to defer or temporarily suspend, cancel or transfer their studies, through formal agreement. This policy also details the circumstances where a student's enrolment may be deferred, suspended, cancelled or transferred by the Institute.

Definitions

Cancel enrolment	Terminate enrolment
Compassionate or compelling circumstances	Situations beyond the control of the student may be good reasons why a student needs special consideration. The following are examples of compassionate or compelling circumstances: Serious illness or injury, (a medical certificate must be provided stating that student is unable to attend class) Bereavement of close family members A traumatic experience such as witnessing a serious accident or crime A major political upheaval or natural disaster in the overseas distant learners home country
Defer studies	delay the commencement of studies
Suspend studies	put studies off for a period of time with the intention of resuming studies later
Transfer enrolment	change enrolment and fees paid to another student. This may occur where a corporate member or company enrolls an employee and then transfers that enrolment to another employee. Transfer enrolment may only take place before studies commence. The replacement student also must meet entry requirements

The following are grounds for suspension or cancellation of enrolment:

- o Sexual harassment against staff or students or others
- o Racial discrimination, vilification or bullying
- o Intimidating staff or students or others
- o Defaming the Institute or staff or students or others
- o Criminal actions or is a risk of committing a criminal offence
- o Cheating or Plagiarism
- o Refusing to work in a safe, clean, orderly manner
- o Being under the influence of drugs or alcohol to the point which creates an unsafe environment for staff or students or others and oneself
- o Smoking at venues
- o Failure to pay fees when due
- o Failure to maintain appropriate course progress levels

A student who wishes to defer, suspend, cancel or transfer enrolment needs to complete the form: ANNEX I

Procedure

Prior to Enrolment

This policy and procedure is made available to prospective students as a downloadable Policies & Procedures Handbook.PDF from the GRC Institute's web site.

Students must complete the: Defer suspend, Cancel, Transfer application form in ANNEX I at the end of this handbook and submit to education@theGRCInstitute.org

Where a student has applied for deferment or suspension of their studies due to compassionate or compelling circumstances, the Institute will assess the circumstances and grant or decline the student's request.

The college will only defer or temporarily suspend the enrolment of the student on the grounds of: compassionate or compelling circumstances or misconduct by the student. Students have the right to appeal any decision, generally made within 10 working days, made by the Institute.

If the student chooses to access the Institute's appeals process, the student's enrolment will be maintained until the internal appeals process is completed. (SRTO 2015: Standard 6)

If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of an internal appeal regarding deferment or suspension of studies they have the right to lodge a complaint with ASQA. Prior to this the Institute will endeavour to consider all reasonable requests as it is not in the Institute's best interest to have dissatisfied students but it is also not in the Institute's best interest to accept deferment or suspension of studies where it is not justified. However, the Institute will abide by any direction from ASQA.

Appeals and Complaints (SRTO 2015: Standard 6.1 and 6.3)

GRCI is dedicated to providing a high standard of service. Students or staff who wish to pursue a concern in relation to the education and training services provided by GRCI are encouraged lodge an appeal or complaint using the following processes:

Appeals (refer below for Complaints)

Step 1: Students who are appealing an assessment outcome and/or the assessment process or an administrative matter involving their study should raise the matter with their Trainer/Assessor who will attempt to resolve the issue immediately. Appeals may be made by email, phone or in person. If resolved it should be noted and placed in the student file and the complaints log.

(This step should commence within ten (10) working days of the assessment outcome being advised or the compliant issue becoming a concern).

Step 2

If still not satisfied, the student or staff member must complete the Complaints/Assessment Appeals Form - Part A (refer ANNEX H) and forward to RTO Manager.

(This should occur within 5 working days of Step 1)

Step 3

For an assessment appeal it is to be reviewed by a different Assessor without reference to the original assessor's marks or commentary and the results of the review summarised on the Complaints and Assessment Appeals Form. The student will be advised of the appeals outcome within 10 working days. If resolved the matter is to be documented on the appeals form, a copy supplied to the student, and noted in the complaints log (ANNEX H).

(This should occur within 10 working days of Step 2)

Step 4

If still not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal or complaint, it is to be reviewed by the Managing Director. The RTO Manager will send an acknowledgement letter to you, record the receipt of the Assessment Appeals Form, then review. The RTO Manager if necessary will convene a review panel to thoroughly examine the appeal or complaint.

(You will be advised of the outcome within 10 working days).

Step 5

If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of an internal appeal review they have the right to seek third party independent review. Prior to this the Institute will endeavour to consider all reasonable requests as it is not in the Institute's best interest to have dissatisfied students but it is also not in the Institute's best interest to accept an appeal where it is not justified. However, the Institute will abide by any direction from the third party independent review. The RTO committee is available for the purpose of review: and consists of both internal and external members. Further, the complainant may wish to present their case to an independent external dispute resolution organisation such as the Resolution Institute.

On the 1st January 2015 IAMA integrated with LEADR to become Resolution Institute. As an integrated organisation, Resolution Institute offers the range of services previously available from each of these organisations, including ADR (alternative dispute resolution). "ADR usually describes dispute resolution where an independent person (an ADR practitioner, such as a mediator) helps people in dispute to try to sort out the issues between them. ADR can help people to resolve a dispute before it becomes so big that a court or tribunal becomes involved. ADR can be very flexible and can be used for almost any kind of dispute; even those that would never go to a court or tribunal." NADRAC, Your Guide to Dispute Resolution, 2012.

Complaints (refer above for Appeals)

A complaint includes any issue regarding the behaviour of another, whether a staff member or student, that causes concern. This includes, but not limited to: harassment of any kind, service or lack of, offensive or suggestive language, discrimination of any type and so on.

First instance: Students and staff are encouraged to speak immediately with the person (staff or student) they have a complaint with or their trainer or supervisor. If the student or staff member is not comfortable addressing the issue directly with the person they have a complaint with or with the trainer or supervisor they are encouraged to contact the RTO Manager or another staff member that they can discuss the issue. This may resolve the issue.

Second instance: If the issue is not resolved the student or staff member is encouraged to either speak to or contact in writing the Managing Director who will discuss the issue with the RTO Manager.

Third instance: If the matter is still not resolved an independent third party will be requested to assist with resolution. Prior to this the Institute will endeavour to consider all reasonable complaints against a staff member or student. The Institute will abide by any direction from the third party independent review. The RTO committee is available for the purpose of review: The RTO committee is available for the purpose of review: and consists of both internal and external members.

Outcomes of complaints will be provided to the candidate in writing within 15 working days of the decision.

Fourth instance:

If still not satisfied with the outcome of this procedure then the student will be advised of their right to refer the matter to the new complaints hotline: through the National Training Complaints Hotline, complaints will be directed to relevant authorities, connecting consumers with the most appropriate organisation to assist them. Students can register a complaint with the National Training Complaints Hotline by:

Phone: 13 38 73, Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm nationally. Email: skilling@education.gov.au
The National Training Complaints Hotline uses the services of the Translating and Interpreting Service and National Relay Service if required.

It should be noted that ASQA still has an on line complaints section at <http://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/complaints.html> However, ASQA now takes a risk assessment approach to complaints as their resources are limited and will only focus on the most serious complaints.

If still not satisfied with the outcome of this procedure then the student will be advised of their right to refer Australia Fair Trading or seek legal advice.

Prior to this the Institute will endeavour to consider all reasonable requests, including the use of an independent third party as outlined above, as it is not in the Institute's best interest to have dissatisfied students but it is also not in the Institute's best interest to act on a unjustified complaint. However, the Institute will abide by any direction by an independent third party or by an external agency such as The Resolution Institute which offers ADR (described above)

Course fees and charges

All fees and charges for the delivery of vocational training and assessment services must be approved by the Managing Director prior to their publication, quotation to students or tender submission. Fees are available on GRCI's web.

All students are to be provided with a numbered invoice detailing all fees paid. Where an employer is to be invoiced for services for his/her employees undertaking training, the invoice must clearly indicate the names of those employees for whom the invoice applies.

Students attending GRCI courses will be given the opportunity to apply for recognition of prior learning anytime prior to and/or during the course.

Students are required to prepare a portfolio of evidence to address the performance criteria of the competency standard for which they are seeking recognition. Refer Annex N for an example of an RPL portfolio.

A formal briefing may be provided to all RPL students to explain acceptable evidence, how the Portfolio works and the process in submitting for assessment. GRCI staff will be available to advise and assist with the preparation of the portfolio of evidence on request.

Students should contact the GRCI office to arrange collection of portfolios and set interview dates.

The assessment tool used for RPL can be found at Annex N.

A fee will be charged for the assessment.

Should the student be dissatisfied with the RPL determination, they may appeal. Refer Appeals Policy.

Industry Consultation (SRT0 2015: Standard 1)

GRCI will consult with industry on a regular basis to ensure that the training the organisation conducts is current and meeting industry needs.

Industry consultation includes the following...

The committee is only activated on a needs basis:

Industry Advocacy Submissions

GRCI works with members of GRCI (industry representatives from Principal Members and GRCI membership) to create working groups of industry specialists that communicate their compliance, risk and governance concerns and issues across a range of industries. The results of these working parties impact on development of training materials. For a complete list of Industry Advocacy submissions refer to web SUBMISSIONS and ARCHIVED SUBMISSIONS tabs. Recently submissions include the following.

- CAMAC Managed Investments Scheme Consultation September 2011
- FOFA Tranche Two
- Submission to Assistant Treasurer, Bill Shorten, for a compliance education fund.
- Finance Crime Section, Attorney General's Department - in response to its call for comment on proposed measures to amend allowances for facilitation payments
- ASIC CP 171 - Review of Regulatory Guide 79 Managing Conflicts of Interest
- Department of Agriculture, Fisheries & Forestry on proposed reforms of the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals Legislation Amendment Bill
- Attorney General's Department - Anti-Corruption Plan GRCI believes that a significant amount of work is still required if a comprehensive and effective plan is to be developed that is integrated into all three tiers of government.
- Personal Liability for Corporate Fault Reform Bill 2012 (the bill) GRCI appreciates the difficulty faced by company directors in assuming responsibility for ensuring all aspects of an organisation's conduct when in many cases it is the CEO (or equivalent) and senior management that holds greater sway over the culture of the organisation; their day to day operations; and the resulting compliance and risk outcomes
- New Zealand Commerce Select Committee: Financial Markets Conduct Bill

Industry Advocacy Engagement

GRCI actively organises and participates in open discussions and regulator engagement to advocate balanced regulation for members and their organisations. GRCI Managing Director conducted a series of meetings with regulators in Australia, Hong Kong, New Zealand and Singapore, and participated in a selection of committees to communicate member feedback. Work continued to move forward on the development of an international compliance standard following funding granted by the Commonwealth in 2010/11. The project has drawn support from 21 countries. In late 2012 GRCI began working closely with Standards Australia to provide direct feedback to the International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) around the AS/NZS 3806 standard on which the new standard will be based. Work will continue on this important project over the next three years and it is envisaged those organisations already trained and using the AS/NZS 3806 compliance standard stand to gain a competitive edge in the international business arena once the international standard is finalised. With finalisation GRCI will act to incorporate new international compliance standards in their courses.

Industry Strategic Partner

GRCI has close links with the Australian Risk Policy Institute (ARPI)
ARPI provides consultation and expert services through a number of publications and policies. ARPI's partners list refers to GRCI as "The GRC Institute (formerly ACI) is the leading association for over 2,500 paid compliance and enterprise risk management professionals across the Asia Pacific region, with a strong focus on the development of business governance practices that support the achievement of an organisation's objectives. "

Industry Skills Committes TB updated with renewal of courses

Professional Development (SRTO 2015: Standard 1.21, 1.23, 1.24)

GRCI arranges professional development to continuously develop the skills and knowledge of its trainers and assessors –refer to Trainer/assessor Matrices

GRCI will establish and verify that its trainers and assessors meet national benchmark competency requirements and continue to develop their competence by:

- supporting them in meaningful engagement with industry and relevant professional bodies
- supporting their professional development in teaching and learning methods
- supporting their attendance at professional conferences as presenters or participants

Evidence of improvements will include records of professional development undertaken by staff and included in their staff portfolio

Trainers and Assessors (SRTO 2015: Standard 1.21, 1.23, 1.24)

GRCI will ensure that training is delivered and assessments are conducted, by staff who have:

- TAE40110 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment with LLN (SRTO require a minimum skills set for assessment)
- current knowledge and skills in assessing against the relevant training package has shown by currency in experience and qualifications
- current knowledge of the relevant training package
- current knowledge of the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF)
- current knowledge of the SRTO 2015
- current training and assessment practices,
- necessary interpersonal and communication skills including knowledge of language, literacy and numeracy issues in the context of assessment, and
- the required credentials if the qualification or units of competency are being delivered to meet a regulatory or licensing requirement. In some cases licensing authorities require trainers and assessors to have qualifications higher than those they are training and assessing.

GRCI will maintain the following records:

- copies of qualifications of all trainers/assessors and their CVs
- records that show how the competency of each trainer/assessor meets the requirements of the competencies they are delivering and assessing (for example, mapping documents)
- CPD plans for each trainer/assessor
- Currency in ASQA SRTO
- 12 monthly updates of CV showing currency of work experience and professional development currency

Supervision of Trainers and Assessors (SRTO 2015: Standard 1.17 to 1.20)

Where a trainer doesn't meet the criteria above GRCI will have a clear arrangement in place to ensure a supervising trainer provides regular guidance, support and direction to the supervised trainer. The supervised trainer must complete a staff induction and TAE to be fully qualified to train unsupervised.

Direct supervision applies to a staff member who:

- delivers or assesses training but does not hold the TAE40110 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (but may have an earlier version such as TAA40104 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or BSZ40198 Certificate IV in Assessment and Workplace Training and are undergoing an upgrade course to TAE)
- is not able to demonstrate the equivalent competencies.

Direct supervision can be provided by a trainer/assessor who holds the appropriate training competencies. The supervising trainer/assessor is accountable for the training/assessment conducted under direct supervision but it is not necessary for the supervisor to be present during all training delivery. It is necessary, however that the supervisor check or co-assess all assessment activities.

The role of a supervisor is to:

- provide guidance, support and direction in relation to the delivery and assessment process
- conduct an initial meeting to review the training and assessment material
- discuss strategies to support specific students
- conduct subsequent meetings to review amended training and assessment material
- conduct meetings on a regular basis to review training and assessment conducted
- monitor delivery (by observation and feedback) and assessments (by reassessing, comparing and discussing)
- check compliance with the SRTO requirements

GRCI will maintain records of supervision arrangements being implemented (for example, meeting notes, emails). GRCI will require its staff to upgrade or complete the new qualification within 12 months.

NOTE: Supervision has never been required since the start of our RTO courses because all trainers have the required qualifications. This remains true as of June 2018

Teach Out and Transition Policy & Procedure

Compliance Requirements

ASQA: General Direction – Transition and teach-out (2014)

SRTO 2015: Standard 1.26 and 1.27

Definitions

ASQA: Australian Skills Quality Authority

Current Student: a student who has commenced training and/or assessment in a VET course as at the date the VET course replacement is published on the national register (training.gov.au)

Deleted: when a qualification or unit of competency is removed from a training package without being replaced by another qualification or unit of competency, the qualification or unit is referred to as a 'deleted training package qualification' or 'deleted unit of competency'.

Genuine disadvantage: must be evidenced from the perspective of each affected student, not simply the convenience of the RTO. Genuine disadvantage assumes that the disadvantage to the student outweighs the advantage to the student being enrolled in and receiving the most current qualification upon completion. Below are situations that may result in a student experiencing genuine disadvantage and should be read in the context of the later 'principles underpinning the direction. This list is not intended to be exhaustive:

- o a requirement to undertake additional units of competency
- o a fundamental change in the structure or content of a training program
- o a significant change in training venue or delivery mode
- o an extension to the enrolment period
- o an additional financial expense

National register: <http://training.gov.au/>

RTO: ASQA registered training organization

New student: a student who has not commenced training or assessment in a VET course as at the date the training product's replacement is published on the national register

Superseded: when a new training package qualification or accredited course replaces an existing qualification, the existing qualification/accredited course is referred to as a 'superseded'. This rule also applies to units of competency that may be 'superseded'.

Teach-out: allowance to complete training, assessment and qualification/accredited course issuance of current students in an inactive VET course, following expiry of any applicable transition period of the VET course's replacement. In SRTO 2015 this is defined as

"...all learners' training and assessment is completed and the relevant AQF certification documentation is issued .... within a period of one year from the date the replacement training product ..."

Transition: all actions required to change the delivery operations of an RTO from an existing training product to a replacement endorsed/accredited training product; including resourcing, registration and transfer of students.

Principles

- When assessing compliance with SRTO 2015, ASQA will apply an overarching principle that a student is entitled to receive the current (endorsed or accredited) training product, unless the student would be genuinely disadvantaged in transferring to that product under the prescribed transition arrangements. In these cases, an RTO is permitted a further period to teach-out the student in his/her existing qualification, but must be prepared to demonstrate, upon request, how the student would have experienced genuine disadvantage if made to transition earlier. A student must not continue training in any qualification, accredited course or unit of competency beyond the combined transition and teach-out periods under any circumstances.
- An RTO must apply to have a new training package qualification, unit of competency and/or accredited course added to its scope of registration (by submitting an Application to change RTO scope of registration or Application for accreditation form with the Accredited course form, accompanied by the required fee), if it wishes to deliver the new product. Approval of this application must be recorded on the national register (training.gov.au) before the RTO can commence delivery.
- RTOs must ensure that students are not enrolled in qualifications/courses that adversely affect their opportunities for employment and/or future study pathways.
- An RTO must provide timely and adequate advice and guidance to current students if the qualification or course in which they are enrolled is superseded/deleted/expired and ensure students are given the opportunity to transfer to replacement training package qualifications course or accredited courses or other currently endorsed training packages or accredited courses. Transfer of students must be undertaken in collaboration between the student and the RTO. Current students must not be required to transfer to new training package qualifications or new accredited courses where the genuine disadvantage to them in doing so would outweigh their continued training in, and issuance with, a qualification or statement of attainment for a superseded or deleted training package qualification or superseded or expired accredited courses.

- An RTO does not need to apply to ASQA to teach-out a training package qualification, unit of competency or accredited course in accordance with this general direction and inline with the standard outlined in Standard 1.26.
- The following table sets out the arrangements for transition and teach-out to guide RTOs in managing their obligations when training packages and accredited courses are replaced, deleted or expired.

Transition arrangement including teach-out procedure and provisions

	Transition arrangements			Teach-out provisions
	RTO registration	Continuing Students	New Students
Superseded 1. Training package qualification or 2. Accredited course or 3. Superseded unit of competency	If a training package qualification or accredited course on scope has been superseded then a transition application for the new training package qualification or accredited course will be submitted to ASQA if applicable. NOTE: ASQA may allow transition without a submission. In the case of a superseded unit it will be replaced within the course/qualification and implemented with the next cohort. Application to ASQA is no longer required	Where practical students will be transitioned to the new qualification ie where the units are substantially the same. Where this is impractical and disadvantages students the Institution will follow the 'teach-out' policy. Teach out would be for 12 months to complete the qualification	Once a replacement qualification or course or unit of competency has been added to scope new students will be enrolled in the new qualification or course.	The Institution may continue to deliver training and assessment and issue awards to current students of the superseded qualification or course who would have been genuinely disadvantaged if required to transfer to the replacement qualification, for up to 12 months after the expiry of the qualification or course. Where necessary the Institution may apply to extend the teach out period a further 6 months to assist any students who may have been deemed NYC (max 18 months after expiry) Students who have not completed a superseded qualification within 12 months may be transferred to the new qualification under RPL or credit transfer arrangements at the Institution or another institution. Except to replace a testamur issued by the Institution previously, the Institution will not issue an AQF testamur to a student for a qualification that was superseded more than 12 months ago. During the teach-out period, the Institution will not enrol students and/or commence delivery in the superseded qualification or course

Steps in teach out of expired qualifications and transition to new qualification

1. Notification from the national register (training.gov.au) of units or qualifications being superseded (date of expiry of qualifications is listed on scope)
2. Prior to expiry the Institution will arrange addition to scope of the new qualification by either
  - a. Do nothing if ASQA has indicated that transition will be automatic OR
  - b. Apply for addition to scope through a transition application (typically where the new qualification is substantially the same as the old) OR
  - c. Apply to add the new qualification to scope (typically where the new qualification is substantially different)
 NOTE: where (b) or (c) is not known the Institution will apply under (b) and ASQA will notify typically within 2 weeks if (c) applies.
3. Once the new qualification is on scope continuing students will be notified via email by the RTO Manager, and by mail, that they will either
  - a. Continue their training under 'teach out' of the old qualification in the Cert IV in Compliance Management or the Grad Cert in Compliance Management
  - OR
  - b. Continue their training but 'transition' to the new qualification as it is substantially the same or would have little disadvantage to students to do so
4. The RTO Manager in collaboration with trainer/assessors are to ensure that the new cohort (under 'teach out' or 'transition') modify or create documentation for the new course. This includes mapping of new units to assessments
5. Under 'teach out students' will receive the applicable expired testamur, records of results or statement of attainment. Under 'transition' they will receive the new versions
